

EVERYBODY TALKS

senior Jack Ringenberg and his award winning talk show

WHAT IS YOUR TALK SHOW?

"The first episode was produced last year, my junior year and that won a national award and then it also won an award statewide. Then the most recent episode was filmed a few months ago and that won a state award as well."

WHAT IS YOUR INSPIRATION FOR THE SHOW?

"I decided I wanna do a talk show because I think that's a fun idea. I just thought I'll just talk about all my favorite things. The first episode was more talking about behind the scenes of business and stuff. And the most recent episode I talked about was the Oscars and freelance media."

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO FOLLOW YOUR TALK SHOW DREAMS?

"I think it's important for young people to follow their dreams, if you've got a dreams the only thing stopping you from achieving it is yourself, you know."

WHAT ARE THE MECHANICS TO CREATING A SHOW?

"There's a whole lot of pre-production. I've got to find a team of people that will help me do it. We plan out our segments, our ad breaks, everything we're going to talk about. Then we put together a script It's a whole process."
